What we do

We provide a platform for stakeholders in the tax justice space to generate, share and consolidate information on tax and illicit financial flows (IFFs) through an online digital repository.

The hub aims to:

- Boost access to evidence based IFF resources.
- Increase momentum to influence policies.
- Improve communication and accessibility to relevant knowledge assets
- Foster strategic partnerships that boost advocacy efforts for tax and IFF awareness in Africa.

How we do it

We engage academia, researchers, civil society members, government officials, parliamentarians, students, corporates and media practitioners in the tax and illicit financial flows(IFF) space that champion tax justice in Africa.

We enroll the interested partners through:

- Identification: Selection of various partners in the field of Tax and IFF who have indicated interest to join.
- Engagement: Contacting various partners in the field of Tax and IFF and engaging them for support and growth financially or non-financially.
- Onboarding: persons and organizations interested in becoming members are trained and onboarded on the TIFF hub platform.
- Membership allocation: Allocation is done according to different levels, thus general member, expert or champions.

Benefits of being a member

Members benefit by:

- Accessing cutting-edge information in a central repository.
- Collaborative learning opportunities.
- Networking and partnership development.
- Skill enhancement and training Resources.
- Recognition and thought leadership.
- Knowledge metrics and analytics from market intelligence and trend analyses.
